Perspectives on (Un-) Employment

11th interdisciplinary
Ph.D. Workshop

Aims and Topics

The IAB Graduate School's 11th interdisciplinary Ph.D. workshop "Perspectives on (Un-) Employment" endeavours to bring together young researchers from different disciplines. This international workshop will provide an opportunity for Ph.D. students to present and discuss their research in a constructive atmosphere, incorporating feedback and advice from a number of experienced researchers. The workshop will focus on labour market research. Within this field, theoretical and empirical contributions from both the micro- and macro-perspective are welcome. For an overview of possible topics you may have a look at the following (non-exhaustive) list:

- Labour Supply, Labour Demand and Unemployment
- Social Inequality and Discrimination
- Gender and Family
- Evaluation of Institutions and Policies
- Education, Qualification and Skills
- Migration and International Labour Markets
- Regional Labour Markets
- Employment Quality and Health
- Technological Change and Digitalization
- Methodology of Labour Market Research

Keynote Speakers

- Professor Daniel S. Hamermesh (Barnard College and IZA)
- Professor Marita Jacob (University of Cologne)

Proceedings
